PROTEST HEARINGS ARE SCHEDULED FOR JULY 5th, JULY 6th and JULY 7th (Appointments Optional): The Cass County Board of Equalization, in its capacity as the Board, has hired a real estate professional as Referee to assist the Board in examining all protests. A hearing will be set for each property being protested - whether the protester wishes to attend or not, subject to scheduling and policies of the Board. If a hearing is waived, or protester is not available, consideration of a protest will be given based on the written documentation submitted with the protest filed. Relevant information will also be provided to the Referee by the Assessor's office. Protesters have the responsibility of presenting relevant evidence as to why the assessed value of the protested property should be adjusted. It is not the responsibility of the Referee to appraise each property, but rather to consider the information presented by the protester and the County and make a recommendation to the Board. Therefore, it is important that the protester provide relevant information that supports the requested valuation.

Due to volume of protests, once an appointment is scheduled, it cannot be rescheduled. Once an appointment is waived, it cannot be undone. All protests are reviewed, regardless if there is an appointment.

Referee Recommendation(s) will be presented to the Board of Equalization (BOE) for their formal action - no later than July 25th. The County Clerk will notify the protester of the action taken by the Board. Appeals may be taken to the Tax Equalization and Review Commission (TERC) on or after July 26 and on or before August 24. For more TERC information, go to <https://terc.nebraska.gov/> or call (402) 471-2842.
